Over $10 million has been embezzled from non-profit, volunteer organizations over the past few years with more negative headlines being made by emergency service organizations and other non-profits as a result of an embezzlement.

“We never thought such a trusted member could do something like this.”

A theft or embezzlement can be crippling for the non-profit and volunteer organizations.

Developed by fellow firefighters with over 25 years of financial bookkeeping and leadership experience, this course explores how thefts of funds are happening, why they're happening and more importantly how they can be prevented.

- ⇒ Open to ALL Emergency Service Organizations.
- ⇒ Recommended for all classification of members, especially those responsible for the daily management of the organization.
