

History of the Loney Family

Mr. Derek Parker

Robert Loney was a Civil War soldier who fought with a Black regiment from Columbia. He also worked as part of the Underground Railroad, ferrying fugitives to safe houses in Columbia. Mr. Derek Parker, historian, author, and direct descendent of Mr. Loney will present an informative presentation on his ancestor's rich history and the contribution of Columbia residents towards freedom and justice for all citizens.

Thursday, April 11, at 11 AM
Columbia Public Library

Zion Hill Cemetery, where Robert Loney
and many other Black Civil War veterans are buried.

Fifth and Linden Streets, Columbia, PA