

Breakfast treat

I wish to thank the family who paid for my breakfast on Easter Sunday at the Columbia Family Restaurant.

The kindness of this family overwhelmed me. What a great thing to do.

I plan on passing it on.

Tab is paid for men in uniform

On Friday, April 5, Clyde Snyder and I were having breakfast at Silver Springs Restaurant. We were in uniform for military honors for a deceased veteran later that morning.

When we asked for the check, our nice waitress informed us that our breakfast had been paid for by a gentleman who was there and had left.

Clyde and I would like to say thank you to the gentleman, and will pay it forward to others in the future.

Saddened by theater closing

I mirror Karen Roberts' lament on the closing of the Point of View Cinema (Intell/New Era, April 23).

Since moving to the Lancaster area 10 years ago, I found nothing more rewarding on an weekend evening than to visit the little movie theater in the woods just off Fredrick Street in Millersville.

Like Karen, I am hopeful for the rebirth of this delightful little gem of Cinema Paradiso. When it returns, I definitely will be one its most loyal patrons.
