

Knives, Bible, NRA, marriage?

Charles Hoenninger wrote a satirical letter about knife control. Knives have many constructive uses. A gun has one use -- to kill -- and automatics with larger clips are only for killing people. Also, if you have ever done a background check, you would know that lying will not show you to be clean.

To letter writer Seth Carl: If we ran our country based on the Old Testament, then we have the duty to kill unruly children and any women caught in the act of adultery.

To Bob Patry: There certainly are degrees of Christianity. If that were not true, there would be only one Christian church. Everybody thinks that their interpretation is right. Stop focusing on differences and focus on love.

To Jerry Brotzman: The NRA was not created to defend Second Amendment rights. It is a lobby which pays off Congress to keep gun manufacturers free of pesky laws that could affect the bottom line.

To Bruno Schmalhofer: The evidence shows that you don't cut your way out of a hole, you grow out. That's something the wealthy Paul Ryan doesn't understand.

And finally to Jack Stauffer: You are right to pray for traditional marriage, since heterosexuals have almost completely destroyed it.
