

The Columbia Market House is hosting an Old-Fashioned Christmas weekend Saturday, December 10th and Sunday, December 11th. The Columbia Market House will be filled with pop-up vendors and our regular stand holders, who will have an array of beautiful hand-crafted pieces of jewelry to carefully created hats, scarves and other essentials to keep the cold away. Arriving Saturday morning at 11:30am is Santa Claus! Stop by to tell Santa your wishes for Christmas and receive a special gift to take home. Moreover; enjoy the Christmas sounds of the Jr. & Sr Columbia High School Chorus on Saturday at 11:30am. The musical entertainment will continue Sunday at 11:30am by David Sears and then again at 4:30pm with Johnny Presto. Pop-up vendors who will be joining us include LuLuRoe, Kinked-N-Twisted, Hand-crafted jewelry, Tastefully Simple, children's bows and headbands, Hand-painted Art, and Photography by John Schmidt, etc. For a complete list see our Facebook Page or our website www.columbiamarkethouse.com. We will be open Saturday, December 10th 10am to 3pm and Sunday, December 11th 10am to 7pm.
