

Take off the rose colored glasses

How can anyone with a mobile phone walk around almost any part of town and see codes violations while a department of who knows how many codes department personnel with who knows how many borough vehicles not see the weeds, the unlicensed vehicles; the peeling paint, the flashing signs and more. Maybe it's those rose-colored glasses? Maybe it's the selective enforcement?

Last week, Councillor John Novak spoke about impending discussion about cleaning up the borough's codes and ordinances. Here's an ideal time to throw out those unenforceable codes and ordinances; or to enforce them equitably and uniformly or to retrain the codes enforcement department.
